ADOPTING BUILDING CODES SAVES $$$$

CONSUMER'S WALLETS ARE just one of the winners as more U.S. jurisdictions update, adopt and enforce the ICC codes. Recent studies show that for every dollar spent on building safety reduces losses from hurricanes, floods, earthquakes and high wind damage by $4.00. Other benefits include energy savings, reduced maintenance costs, lower property insurance premiums and fewer safety concerns. That is a fact that local politicians can understand.
